Conference on
Role of NGOs in distribution of Micro & Social Insurance with CSR Linkage

On behalf of PHD Chamber of Commerce and Industry, we sincerely thank you for addressing the conference on 'Conference on Role of NGOs in distribution of Micro & Social Insurance with CSR Linkage' on Thursday, 20th June 2013.

The programme was very well received by the participants wherein various challenges relating to the micro insurance sector were discussed. Some of these are fall in insurance density and penetration, low affordability of the target group and the limited range of products.

Your valuable suggestions for improving the prospects of this sector in India, like availability of affordable and simpler products, selection of appropriate distribution channels and according important position to NGO's in the whole process, have been highly appreciated.

The CD accompanying this letter has some of your photographs, presentations of speakers and a copy of the background paper.

We look forward to have fruitful association for the future endeavours.

With thanks & regards,

Yours sincerely,

(Pawan Puri)
