

Health Insurance Consultant

Alope Gupta is a Health Insurance Consultant based at Delhi.

He is well conversant with health insurance issues in the country and frequently provides inputs to insurance companies, prospective entrants and Insurance Regulatory & Development Authority, and International Financial Agencies.

He is also Member of Insurance Committee FICCI

He assisted the IRDA Committee on Health Insurance for Senior Citizens as a Consultant and Special Invitee.

He has been a Member of the Health Insurance Committee of The Institute of Actuaries of India.

He worked on the USAID sponsored report titled "Private Health Insurance in India-Promise & Reality" released in May 2008.

In his capacity as a Consultant, he has undertaken wide range of health insurance assignments important among which include development of product strategies for private Indian insurance companies and entry strategy for a global health insurer.

He has been a Member of the Insurance Regulatory and Development Authority, India (IRDA) Committee, which studied the feasibility of permitting Stand-alone Health Insurance companies in the Indian insurance market.

He was also a Member of the Ministry of Finance Committee on Health Insurance Reforms in 2002-03

Prior to working as a Consultant, he was the Country Manager for CIGNA International in India.

He has over 27 years of work experience in the insurance sector.

He is a Post-Graduate in Economics and a Fellow of the Insurance Institute of India.