

Dr. Somil Nagpal, ICAS
MBBS , MHA, MBA (Finance), F.I.I.I.
Special Officer - Health Insurance
Insurance Regulatory and Development Authority

Dr. Somil Nagpal is presently on deputation from the Government of India to the Insurance Regulatory and Development Authority, India, as Special Officer-Health Insurance, and involved with the regulatory and developmental initiatives for the health insurance sector of the country. In the recent past, he has also served the Ministry of Health and Family Welfare, Government of India, the National Commission on Macroeconomics and Health, India, and the World Health Organization.

A top-scoring scholar, having qualified as a medical doctor with his postgraduation in healthcare management from highly renowned institutions, he is also an MBA in Financial Management and a Fellow of the Insurance Institute of India. His academic interests include ongoing research, training and publications on Health Financing, Health Policy and Health Accounting.

Dr. Nagpal has been involved as a resource person/ expert for the World Health Organization and for the Indian and Maldivian Ministries of Health in the areas of Health Insurance, Health Costing and National Health Accounts. He has been a visiting faculty on health insurance, health financing and public finance to various Government, non-Government and International Organizations, and to management institutions, both within India and internationally. He has authored various publications on his areas of interest which have been published in highly recognized periodicals, books and journals.